$1500 Pay Boosts For Newly-Elected County Officers

Salary increase of $1500-a-year for four county elective officers were approved with the adoption of a resolution today at Edwarsville by the county board of supervisors. The session was still under way at noon today, but the salary action was at the top of the agenda.

The salaries will be $11,000 a year for newly-elected Sheriff Barney Fraundorf, Probate Clerk Dale Hill, County Clerk Miss Pauline Holtz, and Treasurer George Musco. They will take effect Dec. 3. The $11,000 figure is the maximum.

The county board finance committee also is in contract talks with County Employees Union Local 799. The county's 153 employees are seeking $40 monthly pay increases. They have had no increases for two years, and it is expected the wage scales will be taken up at the board's Dec. 28 meeting.

The regular Dec. 19 meeting date was changed to give the finance committee more time to work on the new budget. Action by the board was still pending at press time today on written policy for sharing county road costs within a municipality. No change in past procedures is anticipated.

UF Seeks $10,900 To Reach Goal

The area's United Fund drive for 1963 is now within $10,943 of the $20,843 goal, it was announced today by Drive Chairman John McBride.

"The last $10,943 is the toughest," McBride commented, adding that volunteers are continuing with calls in the all-out campaign. The UF executive committee, headed by Sidney Aubrey, met yesterday, but took no steps to raise the goal. The annual drive, 2515 Iowa street, William Ames, 1918 Rhodes street, Madison, is the depository for UF funds for 1963.

Salvation Army Gathering Names For Yule Baskets

The Salvation Army Christmas program got underway today with the first applications for Yule baskets being accepted for Christmas baskets. Needy persons wishing to apply for assistance must do so at the Salvation Army office at Nineteenth street and Grand avenue. Only exceptional cases will be taken by referral. The Salvation Army hopes to give $4500 this year for its Christmas program. The annual Tree of Lights campaign will get underway Saturday, Dec. 1.

A 12-foot black holly spruce, recently donated by the Terrace Garden club, will be used for the first time. The tree is near the fountain in Memorial park, across Madison avenue from St. Elizabeth Hospital, according to Capt. Mike McLaughlin. Carl Graham, local book store operator, is this year's Tree of Lights chairman. The tree will be lighted one bulb at a time. Each bulb will designate the sum of $25 donated in cash or merchandise. There will be a display board near the tree on which will be registered the name of each individual or organization giving $25 or more. Last year, the Salvation Army distributed 380 food baskets, 850 toys, clothing for 20 children, and 317 institutional gifts to the Scott County Nursing Home, Scott AFB Hospital and the Salvation Army's Home Aged Club. Dec. 10 is the deadline for applying for a Christmas basket. Baskets will be distributed Dec. 12 from 1824 State street. Toys will be given out from the toy building at the Salvation Army building at Nineteenth and Grand. As in the past, baskets will be packed by the Eagles Auxiliary and other volunteers. Salvation Army kettles also will be "bbling" at two Granite City locations at the Woodworth store and at the Belle-More Village shopping center. "Volunteer bellringers still are needed to keep the kettles boiling. Organizations wishing to take part may be scheduled by calling Capt. Walker at the Salvation Army office. An engraved bell is awarded the organization raising the most money. Already scheduled are the Professional Women's Club, the Utility Workers Union Local 405, the Granite City Rotary Club and the Salvation Army Guards.

ICC Grants 12.75% Rate Boost To Water Co. Today

(Special from Springfield)

A spokesman for the Illinois Commerce Commission announced shortly after noon today that a decision for a 12.75% rate boost for East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. has been reached. The boost will be "across-the-board" effective midnight next Monday and will provide $580,000 added annual revenue.

The company was seeking a 32.7% boost to add $1,747,943 to its annual revenue. The request was strongly opposed by local large water users.

The decision follows a long series of hearings going back to last May. ICC commissioners met "far into the night" last night to review testimony and still in session.

The ICC granted a 24% rate increase May 22, but after the company's request for a 47% rate boost would have gone into effect automatically. The May 25 deadline was extended to Tuesday.

With both the utility and objectors seeking a rehearing of the 24% rate, it was suspended until 31 separate days of argument resulted. The suspension expires next Tuesday, Nov. 27. With a final decision now having been reached, it has been decided to give out the details today and then file the formal order next Monday.

$6,000,000 Tank Hull Contract For General Steel

A $6,000,000 contract award to General Steel for the hull of a tank for the Army's M-60 medium tank is being awarded today by Charles P. Whitehead, GSI president.

The contract is extension of the present work about to end and production at the local plant. The same level of work is being continued at the Edwarsville plant. The hulls are to be produced in the tanks at the Edwarsville plant.

Shipments under the new contract with Chrysler Corp. are to begin in January and continue for about 12 months.

Mrs. Flora Fijan Is Stricken; Dies At 64

Mrs. Flora Fijan, 64, of 2013 State street, was dead on arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 6:30 p.m. yesterday after she was stricken by a sudden attack at home.

Mrs. Fijan had been under medical care for the past 30 years for a heart affliction, although her condition had improved to where before she appeared to be well.

Her husband, Frank, a Madison insurance agent, said he found Mrs. Fijan on the kitchen floor when he awoke at 6 p.m. She had talked by telephone to a friend and was preparing to go to work. Mrs. Fijan was born in St. Louis, and had been a resident of this community for 45 years. She was a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, where she was past president and treasurer of the Altar Society.

Survivors, in addition to her husband and son, include daughter, Mrs. Genevieve Mercer, wife of Col. Frank Mercer, San Antonio, Texas; daughter, Bernice Huggins of St. Louis; and eight grandchildren.

Crackdown On Venice Auto 'Rolling Stops'

A crackdown is being started on Venice stop sign violations, it was announced yesterday. "Rolling stops" will not be tolerated, police said, adding that they are issuing arrest tickets when full stops are not made. Problem areas are numerous but the most serious are said to be the intersection of Broadway and Fourth street and the intersection of Broadway and the street entrance to the Broadway viaduct. A traffic fatality occurred at the latter location Nov. 17, and an inquest is pending. It has been claimed that there was a passenger in the auto of Robert Smith, 3004 East 23rd street, who was driving on Broadway at the time of the crash, but that she left the area and was omitted from the initial accident report. Police said Smith was omitted in his car.

Gunman Calls Again; This Time Steals $40

Confectionery In East
Granite Robbed Second
Time In 25 Days

A repeat visit to Olga's Confectionery, the second in 25 days, was not as profitable as the first for a lone, armed bandit. The second pickup at 5:20 p.m. Monday netted the gunman about $40.

On Oct. 25, the same gunman robbed Mrs. Olga Crispin of $130. This was the 17-year-old daughter, Charlotte, was alone in the building at 2343 East 24th street. Mrs. Crispin had gone downtown on business.

Police are of the opinion the bandit was the same man who robbed the police earlier in the week. Mrs. Crispin said she is not certain the description given by her daughter answers the one she gave.

Shooting In Kitchen
Mrs. Crispin was in the kitchen adjoining the store and was singing when she heard someone enter.

As she walked out to wait on the man, he pulled a gun with a short, blue barrel and ordered the girl to "Give me the money."

She gave him the contents of the till.

The girl told police she must have appeared "faint" to the bandit, for as he went to the door he assured her by saying, "I'm going now," which he repeated twice. The girl, however, was unable to give police a detailed description.

Saw Car Near Store
Mrs. Crispin said she noticed a two-tone 1936 auto alongside the store when she left. It was the same model but not the same color as the one used last month by the man who robbed her.

"The first car was black and white," she said. "This one was dark gray and white." Mrs. Crispin said she was not sure if the car was a 1936 or a 1937.

Had Considered Rebeck
"When I saw it as I drove away, I just knew I should drive around the block and see if it again," she said. "I wasn't a block away when the robbery happened."

Mrs. Crispin said she is not at all sure the man described by her daughter was the same man who robbed her.

The girl described the man as about six feet two inches with dark blond kinky hair. Mrs. Crispin said the hair of the man who robbed her was not kinky, however, police said.

Mrs. Crispin said she believes the robbery was planned for the morning to look up at magazines.

Could Village Operate With $765 A Year?

Maximum If Pontoon Rate To Be Less Than Potential City Rate

(Eleventh of a series)
"That's why we moved out here," one Pontoon Beach resident says in explaining his outcry of why a new village should be created in the Dec. 8 special election. His goal is to avoid Granite City annexation and Granite City taxes through establishment of a separate municipality.

The point of view brings up this question: Is there a tax rate saving to be gained? The answer: Not unless the new village could operate for less than $765 a year.

Present Pontoon Beach rates amount to $373 on each $100 of assessed valuation. If Granite City annexed Pontoon Beach, the rate would total $3726, a difference of 15.3 cents.

With an estimated $500,000 assessment in the area of the proposed new village, each penny of tax rate would produce $50 a year in village revenue. Thus, 15.3 cents, the village rate which would bring the total Pontoon rate to $3726, would provide $765 a year which would be the village government.

Township Tax Differs
How could Granite City provide municipal services for only a 15.3-cent rate? A 64-cent city rate would be applied, but the township rate would decrease by 49.1 cents.

The township tax rate cut represents the difference between the Granite City township rate of 2.3 cents and the Name-Old township rate of 51.8 cents (28.6 cents for road purposes and 23.2 cents for the general fund).

The 64-cent city rate consists of the 79.4-cent total with the 15.3-cent fire deduction. The fire rate, the Long Lake fire district tax would take the 15.3-cent rate down to 49.1 cents, and there could not be duplicate taxation.

It should be stated, lest the comparison give the wrong impression, that annexation by Granite City would involve the election. The question to be determined by majority vote is whether the village of Pontoon Beach is to be created, or whether the community is to remain unincorporated.

Burden To City?
In fact, there is some question of whether city officials are

4 Quad-Cities To Eat Turkey At Ft. Wood

Four Quad-Cities will be eating turkey tomorrow at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

The youths were drafted today at the county selective service office at Ft. Wood and sent to the St. Louis induction center for physical examinations.

An induction sergeant at the center said the Army makes no provision for a present Thanksgiving holiday — just Christmas. "But they'll have turkey tomorrow," he added.

Inducted this morning were Kenneth Ray Mitchell of Granite City and Cleveland Henry Harris, Samuel Leon Hardin and Calvin John Hall, all of Madison.

Next month's quotas for the area are three men to be inducted Dec. 6 and four to report for pre-induction physicals on Dec. 12.

THE PUBLIC IS CORDIALLY INVITED

GC Man's Counterfeit Plant Found In Bedroom

Library Books Studied
To Manufacture Plates
For Phony $10 Bills

A money-making scheme — in a bedroom — counterfeiting plant — failed to materialize for 42-year-old Ray Lee Maw.

His apartment at 1503 Kirkpatrick Homes was raided Monday afternoon by Granite City detectives and a U.S. Treasury Department agent who confiscated his equipment.

La Maw was arrested and lodged in the Granite City jail. Tuesday he was turned over to federal authorities to face counterfeiting charges.

Studied Procedures
The investigation revealed he had obtained a signature on engraving plates from the U.S. public library. He looked at duplicating machines at an office supply firm in St. Louis but did not buy one.

Police said the investigation did not reveal any evidence that it was anything but a one-man operation.

In the experimental stage still in the experimental stage of counterfeiting when he was caught, evidently he had been working on his money-making project shortly before the police arrived because his hands were ink stained and ink and chemicals were in the bedroom.

Plate Wrapped In Felt
Police found the back plate for a counterfeiting $10 bill which was wrapped in green felt. There also was part of a front plate which apparently had been used in the operation. It had been cut in two.

A genuine $10 bill which had been used as a model also was seized. Its serial number was on the plate, police said. Other items seized included a printed sample of the back of a $10 bill which had been bleached to obtain the ink, an infra red light and a quantity of poor quality commercial paper.

Local police had the house under surveillance for several weeks. The secret service was contacted and federal agents obtained a search warrant from the U.S. District Commission office at Alton for the raid Monday.

La Maw was described by police as a carpenter by trade.

The board plans to send members to attend child counseling classes at East St. Louis, and it voted to distribute about 25 Thanksgiving baskets to needy families in the area.

Installation of the officers will take place Oct. 29 at the agency's annual meeting which will be held at St. Peter & R Church.

Relief costs included $4738 for food, $289 for medical and nursing home care, $136 for rent, $9 for fuel oil and $86 reimbursement to Stanton township.

Town fund disbursements were $162 half-month salary and $30 travel allowance for Supervisor Nelson Hagauer, $300 half-month salary and $30 travel for Assessor Von Dee, $220 half-month salary for Chief Deputy Assessor Margaret Hornberger.

Other payments were $100 monthly salary for Atty. George J. Moran, $20 per diem for Town Clerk A. L. Stevens, $108 for 72 hours by Deputy Assessor Catherine Herman, $108 for 72 hours by Deputy Assessor Richard Heber, $23 for supplies, $10 for paint, and $101 for a cabinet and supplies for the assessor office and $16 equipment service contract, also for the assessor office.

Rotarians Hear Talk On Public Relations

"The Art of Public Persuasion" was the subject of a talk by Martin Quigley, St. Louis public relations firm executive, at the Tuesday noon luncheon meeting of the Granite City Rotary Club, held at the YMCA.

Pointing out that there is "really no satisfactory definition for public relations," Quigley outlined how it works, its basic concepts and objectives. "Under no circumstances, he emphasized, can a public relations program be used as a 'cover up' for poor quality or performance. The ingredients of any public relations program, he continued, include ethics, logic and emotions or 'feelings' in their broadest sense. His advice to young people interested in a public relations career was to 'work for a newspaper first' because this provides the 'finest training in sifting facts and learning to write clearly and concisely.'

Quigley, a former reporter, is the author of several books, composer and was co-author of the operetta "Molly Darling," which was staged last summer at the St. Louis Municipal Opera.

He was introduced by Carl Mathias, program chairman.

James Jenkins Found Unconscious, Dies

James Jenkins, 58, died Monday afternoon after he was found unconscious on the bathroom floor of his home at 2412 St. Clair avenue and firemen with an inhalator were unable to revive him.

Mr. Jenkins had been staying at the St. Clair avenue address since last summer with a son, Andrew. He had been hospitalized frequently during that time with a heart affliction and had returned from a St. Louis hospital Nov. 10.

He had been alone in the house for a short while Monday. His daughter-in-law found him on the floor about 3:30 p.m. An inquiry will be conducted by Deputy Coroner Henry Pieper.

Mr. Jenkins was formerly a resident of St. Louis. Survivors, in addition to his son here, include three other sons, James and William of St. Louis and Robert of Kansas City, Kans.; two brothers, Robert and Grady of St. Louis; and nine grandchildren.

Woman Says Three Men Forced Way Into Home
Complaints were signed Tuesday night by Mrs. Doris Stover of Jones Park, Pontoon Beach, charging Roy Wiggins, 44, of 2108 Benton street, and Ray Bennett, 37, of 725 Twenty-sixth street, with disorderly conduct and criminal damage to property. She told county authorities they broke into her home.

In addition, the sheriff's office placed a charge of disorderly conduct against Wiggins. He was still being held this morning in the Madison county jail. Bennett is listed in full condition in St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was x-rayed for a possible skull fracture. According to sheriff's deputies he also suffered two broken arms and concussion. They said Mrs. Stover and her children fled their home about 7:20 p.m. when three men, described as intoxicated, forced their way in and began fighting.

The deputies arrested Wiggins in a Pontoon Beach tavern a short time later. The investigation is continuing. The third man has not been identified.

Youth Employment Issues
Topic Of Nov. 28 Meeting

Problems of youth employment in general will be discussed at a public meeting at the Illinois State Employment Service office, 2050 Iowa street, at 7 p.m. next Wednesday.

Malcolm A. Thompson, ISSES representative here, said the meeting is specifically concerned with school dropouts. It was requested by County School Superintendent Wilbur Trimpe.

The meeting is a result of a check "Workshop on Youth, Schools and Jobs" recently completed at Edwardsville. Persons from throughout the county interested in youth employment participated.

Thompson said he will invite members of a newly-formed local youth employment committee to attend the meeting. Workshop topics will give them some definite work on, he said.

Other Issues Involved
The committee was initiated by the ISSES office to study the overall picture of jobs for youth. School dropouts is only a part of the problem, Thompson said.

Representatives of industry, labor, business, the schools and youth services have agreed to serve on the committee, Thompson said.

"We had hoped to have a meeting in the near future," he added, "and I think members of the committee will benefit from the next (Wednesday night) meeting."

Thompson said major purpose of the session is to exchange information about the work being done to prevent dropouts, as well as information about student employment guidance and related topics.

"While we are interested in dropouts, we also have the responsibility of helping college students find summer jobs, and

Steve Shipoff paced the winners with 21 points and teammate Steve Geroff added 11. Greg Puent led Venice with 12 and Richard Essington had nine. Both clubs had 15 field goals, but MJHS enjoyed an 8-3 edge at the free throw line.

Park Basketball Instruction For Boys To Begin

Basketball instruction classes for young boys in two age groups will begin Saturday at four locations in Granite City under sponsorship of the Granite City park district.

The classes, which will later be formed into leagues, will be held at Nameoki, Coolidge and Prather school gymnasiums and at the park community center.

Boys in the fifth and sixth grade age group may report to one of the centers at 9 a.m. Saturday, while interested third and fourth graders may report at 10:30 a.m. Tennis shoes must be worn, and boys must be residents of the park district. A $1 insurance fee covers all costs of the program.

Students at Maryville, St. Elizabeth, Nameoki and Frohardt schools may sign up at the Nameoki gym, where Paul Kratz will be the instructor.

Boys attending Frohardt, Marshall, Wilson, Sacred Heart, Sacred Heart annex, Webster, Niedringhaus and Lake schools should enroll at Coolidge, where Bob Stegmeyer, Dal Maxvill and Robert Summers will be the instructors.

Washington, Emerson, McKinley and St. Joseph students are being asked to register at the community center, where the basketball instructor is Pete Robinson.

At Prather, Conrad "Babe" Champion will give instruction to students from Logan, Logan annex and Washington schools.

Boys will be taught fundamentals for four weeks. An eight-week league schedule will follow. No instruction or league play will be held on Dec. 22 or 29, due to the Christmas holidays.

Optimist Club Honors Youths At Sport Banquet

Youth Appreciation Week was observed Monday by the Twilight Optimist club with a recognition banquet at the Granite City Park District Community Center in Lincoln Plaza.

In attendance were 133 persons, including 15 club members, 60 boys and 60 parents.

Dal Maxvill, shortstop of the St. Louis Cardinals, was the principal speaker. He spoke about his baseball career from the time he started playing in the Khoury league, through Granite City high school, Washington University, the minor leagues and finally as a member of the Cardinals.

He outlined the recent Cardinal trade for Dick Groat and also explained the difference between minor leagues. Later, he invited questions from the audience and signed autographs.

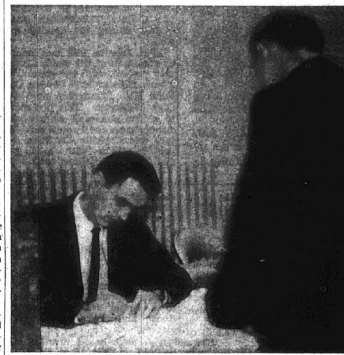

Arthur Branch, manager of the Optimist baseball team, provided trophies for his players which were presented by Maxvill.

During the meeting, President A. L. (Pete) Metcalf presented the club check to Pete Robinson, counselor of the Twilight Junior Optimist club.

Robinson was commended for the progress made by the boys who, though recently organized, already have operating funds in their treasury.

Barry Loman, president of the park board, and Harold Brown, park superintendent, also spoke.

The invocation was given by candlelight by David Morgan.

North Uses Press To Down Chief Frosh; Eighth Graders Win

North junior high school (Collinsville) freshmen basketballers threw a full-court press at Prather's Chiefs here last night, scored 30 points in a big second quarter and rode to a 69-30 win in a preliminary eighth grade game, 25-23.

Bob Berger was one of four Collinsville players in double figures in the ninth grade game, scoring 24 points. Jim Rains led the Prather scoring with 23 points.

Prather led until early in the second quarter, when the North JHS press, applied throughout the entire game, became effective.

Joe Martinez paced Prather's eighth graders with 13 points. The host team was ahead 16-14 at halftime. The Chiefs will play their next games Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. in Roxana.

Feast To Famine? Only One Returnee From Madison's 28-1 Court Team Of Last Season

Possibly the gloomiest man walking the halls at Madison high school these days is basketball Coach Earl "Mac" McClanahan.

Always a serious appearing coach, even while his MHS team of the past two years were compiling a 36-7 non-loss record, including a 28-game winning streak in 1961-62, McClanahan faces the same tough schedule again this season with only one of his top 10 players back.

Lost through graduation are starting guards Mick Graville and Ken Griggs; forward Charlie Koos; a strong reserve group which included Ed Petty, Charles Venarsky and Farris Smith; and, of course, all-star Don Freeman.

Any ballclub would miss a Freeman, who set an individual MHS season scoring record by popping in 778 points last year, but McClanahan indicates that he has no one in mind at this time whom he considers ready to step in and fill the other vacancies.

"We're completely wide open outside of (Cecil) Bell," he said this week. Bell, the only varsity candidate who tops six feet, is a junior who began to work his way into the lineup along towards the conclusion of the 1961-62 season.

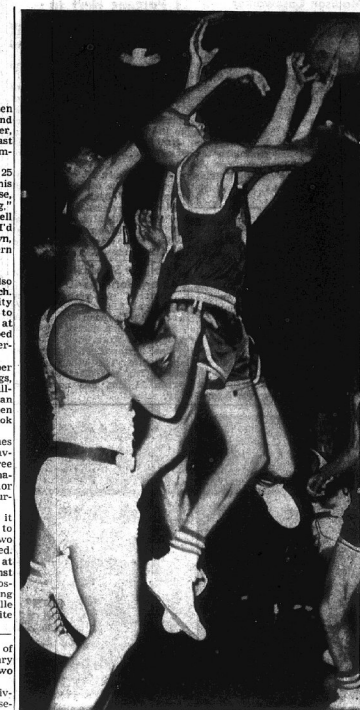

Eligibility Rule
One other holdover from last year's MHS team will be available—but not for long. Senior Terry Andrews, fifth in scoring among the Trojans, will turn 19 next month, thus losing his eligibility under HSAA rules. Andrews will be able to appear in only three ballgames.

Venice Staves Off Closing Rush By St. Paul Vikings; Wins First Contest, 45-44

Twice within one point of losing all of a 14-point lead built up in the first period, Venice high school hung on to score a 45-44 non-conference basketball win over St. Paul of Highland last night at the VHS gym.

The Red Devils rolled up a 15-2 advantage over the ice-cool Vikings over the first eight minutes, as St. Paul hit on only one of 12 shots taken.

But the visitors gained rebound control under both backboards, threw a full-court press at Venice and very nearly pulled the game out with some hot outside shooting in the second half.

St. Paul, playing its first game of the season, outscored Venice 16-11 in the second period to cut the VHS lead to 27-18 at intermission. The Devils then experienced a quarter similar to that suffered by St. Paul in the opening minutes, and scored just six points in the third stanza.

Cut Lead Twice
Ken Carlin's jumper to open the fourth quarter pulled the Vikings to within one point at 33-32. Jerry Celo and Pete Fields hit back-to-back buckets to move Venice out of danger.

With 13 seconds left, Bob Hill scored for St. Paul and was fouled. His free throw cut the VHS lead to 43-44. Fields was fouled with six seconds left as the Vikings tried desperately to regain possession.

His free throw fell off the rim and the Vikings rebounded. But

Bids Jan. 2 On Storm Sewer Line In North Venice

The East Side Levee and Sanitary District today called for sealed bids on construction of a storm water trunk sewer to serve the North Venice area. The line is to run along Bissell, Mercedia and College streets.

Deadline will be 10 a.m. Wednesday, Jan. 2, when the bids will be publicly opened and read. Financing is to be provided as part of one of the pending levee district bond issues.

Admiral L. Kraemer, chief engineer, told the Press-Record the trunk relief sewer will connect with a large line leading to the Mississippi River at a point on Madison County Housing Authority property between Klein street and the railroad tracks west of Klein.

The sewer is part of an overall Venice-Madison drainage improvement program in which the levee district has been participating, Kraemer said. From the point where the North Venice line will connect, located near the Merchants Bridge highline, another sewer is being installed into Madison and along Washington avenue in that city.

Route Of Line
The sewer involved in the Jan. 2 bidding extends northward from the Lee Wright Homes area to Bissell street, east along Bissell to Mercedia street and

TAKE A LOOK AT THE BEST-LIKED CADILLAC OF ALL TIME!

There's no question about it—America has fallen in love with this one.

It's the Cadillac car of 1963—and it is already attracting more attention—and more owners—than any other motor car in Cadillac history. And to be perfectly honest with you, we aren't a bit surprised.

You see, good news about cars travels fast. And the news about Cadillac has never been better . . . nor its owners more vocal.

Give a new Cadillac owner half a minute and he'll tell you how much he likes the new Cadillac look. Clean. Majestic. Substantial. Elegant.

Give him a full minute and he'll talk about the car's new luxury and comfort—and about the incredible range of models, colors and interior appointments.

Show just a little more interest and he'll have you in the driver's seat and out on the highway—receiving the roll call of Cadillac's engineering feats. A smoother, quieter engine. A new true center drive line. A triple braking system.

We've glad our owners are demonstrative. And even if you subtract the usual new car fervor—you'll find that what's left over is reason enough to visit your dealer without delay.

If you see him fast—maybe you can be the first in your neighborhood with a 1963 Cadillac.

An early move, you know, gives you a full year at the wheel.

Kerner Receives Recommendation On Hodge Today

(Special from Springfield)

The State Board of Pardons and Paroles today made a recommendation to Gov. Otto Kerner on the third try for clemency by Orville Hodge, Granite City, former state auditor imprisoned since August 1950.

What the recommendation is was not disclosed. Kerner had no comment on the board's action but it was learned that he will make a thorough study of its findings. He is expected to announce his decision within the next ten days.

The board has been studying the request since a brief hearing Oct. 9 at which the governor was asked to reduce Hodge's sentence from 12-to-15 years to 10-to-15, which would have the effect of making him eligible for parole next Monday, Nov. 26, instead of in August 1963.

Previously hearings were held in the spring and fall of 1962 and in January 1962; first pre-

Madison Caseworker Studies Sign Language

Mrs. Doris Stark of Madison, a psychiatric caseworker supervisor at Alton State Hospital, is taking lessons in sign language so she can converse with a deaf mute patient, a young woman with college training who likes to "talk" about Socrates and Shakespeare.

Mrs. Stark began working with the patient six months ago and learned her first sign language from the woman. Now she is one of 18 persons attending regular classes at St. Joseph Hospital, Alton.

Police said Mrs. Harris was driving north on Hall and the Wells' auto was going west on East 24th street.

Attorney Robert Heckenkamp, Springfield, cited the former official's health, his restitution of embezzled state funds, testimony that he has been rehabilitated, and his more than six years as a model prisoner. Illinois Attorney General William G. Clark 10-to-15, which would have the effect of making him eligible for parole next Monday, Nov. 26, instead of in August 1963.

Retailers Appoint Three Committees

Three standing committees were appointed by President Maurice Rich yesterday afternoon during the regular monthly meeting of the officers and directors of the Associated Retailers & Civic Association, held in the offices of the Tri-City Chamber of Commerce.

Named to the budget committee were Fred Williams, Homer Huber, Stanley Schermer and Gene Frey. Nominating committee members appointed were Ted Berger, Albert Froemling, E. A. Karandjoff and Huber. Williams, Claude Cochran and Alvin Barnes Jr. were named to the 1963 membership dinner committee. Rich, as president, is automatically a member of all three committees.

MECCA Hears Data On Air, Water Pollution

Air pollution, water pollution and industrial development were major topics of MECCA (Metro East Chambers of Commerce Association) Monday evening at Belleville.

Attending from the Tri-Cities C. of C. were President C. L. Baker, C. E. Townsend, G. W. Hoelscher and Harlan Dobry. Dobry said the Southwestern Council of Mayors will meet with MECCA to discuss the feasibility of an areawide industrial development brochure; and it was noted federal agencies have earmarked $250,000 for air pollution studies for the greater metropolitan area.

C. E. Townsend reported on the Bi-State Agency's negotiations for a mass transit system and its operation by mid-1963; and G. W. Hoelscher related the status of polls on abatement programs in the local area.

Concerted efforts will be made for location of a U.S. water pollution field laboratory in the Metro East area. The Tri-Cities, East St. Louis and St. Louis Chambers have made separate bids for the facility.

The next MECCA meeting will be in January and officers are to be elected.

A Time To Remember Who We Are

This is the time of year when Americans traditionally observe a day of thanksgiving for their blessings. It is good that we should do this.

But is it not also fitting that on the day—so reminiscent of our origins—we should be mindful of our heritage and the trust it imposes on us. The price the Pilgrims paid for survival. The bloody feet at Valley Forge. The thunder at the Alamo, Gettysburg, the Argonne, Midway, Bastogne and Pork Chop Hill.

Yes, let us remember who we are. For a little pride is the wellspring of courage. Let us endure unflinchingly whatever sacrifices we are called upon to make to defend our free institutions from the night of communism, which is bent on undermining our faith in ourselves. Let us rely not only on the gold in our vaults, but the iron in our blood. And let us cling like ivy to the faith of our fathers until, in God's good time, all men are free.

OVERSEAS DELIVERY AVAILABLE

15 years ago, this car was nothing to brag about.

The early VW had its problems. It was noisy. Shifting was tough. And it wasn't exactly a powerhouse. But, its shape was functional. The rear engine made for outstanding traction. It was air-cooled. (No boiling over or freezing.) That old VW may have made a racket, but it also made every new idea work.

And so, the VW people invested 15 years of time and effort into perfecting the one basic model. Result: Engine noise is practically gone. The VW gearshift is one of the smoothest in the world. And you can even accelerate uphill.

Over 3,000 changes have been made on the VW so far. (28 this year alone.)

And all to make it work better. The VW may still not be perfect. But it's a good 15 years better than the first one.

Extended Development Plan For Camp Sites

The River Bluffs Girl Scout Council this week adopted a long range plan for development and use of council-owned sites which will be used for day, troop and established camping. The board directed that Camp Chan-Ya-Ta, a 105-acre site northeast of Prairie du Rocher in Madison county, be developed for multiple use; that Camp Torqua, a 75-acre site off Fruit road near Edwardsville, be developed for troop and day camping; and that Camp Rainbow on Signal Hill near East St. Louis, Camp Lakota at Glen Carbon, Camp Kook at Belleville and Camp Harrison at Collinsville be maintained and improved as troop camp sites.

Employment of a camp site planner for the two primitive sites, Chan-Ya-Ta and Torqua, was approved. By 1970 the council hopes to develop Chan-Ya-Ta as a year-round site in all three types of camping and to place Torqua in use consistently as a troop and day camping site.

THE PASTOR SPEAKS

REV. ALFRED BULL
Hope Lutheran Church

Bless the Lord, O my soul and forget not all His benefits. (Psalm 103:2)

In order for anything to really be a blessing to a person it must at the same time that it brings benefit, bring a response. The child, showered by every possible gift and luxury by his parents, will be harmed by all this unless he has been taught to receive it with proper understanding.

Such gifts can well make a selfish fool who expects and demands more and more instead of gratefully acknowledging and using what he gets.

Meaning Of Thanksgiving

Living in a land of unexcelled luxury as we do, thanksgiving must mean more to us than happily nodding our heads to God when we are comforted and things are going our way.

The biggest temptation in time of great blessing is to forget the Giver of those blessings, and concentrate on the gift alone. The Christian who is thankful, however, even when the "cupboard is bare," the Christian is filled with thanksgiving not first of all because of the

State Must Make Serious Effort To Achieve Sounder Public Aid Program

Legislative approval of limited fund transfers to meet Illinois public aid needs is an early and serious study of this matter by the next Illinois legislature, and, hence, is desirable.

Unless a thorough study is made in the full knowledge that the state's fiscal integrity is at stake, there is danger that the line of least resistance might be followed. It would be simpler, in a sense, to merely boost taxes on a basis equal to the rapid rise in public aid costs, but the mistakes of the past would continue and new crises would develop.

Nine specific recommendations for a sounder program, listed on this page Oct. 8, are among the points which should be considered by the General Assembly when it meets in January. In the long run, humanitarian principles can best be served by aid which seeks to solve, not create, governmental problems.

There would be less tendency to seek a realistic solution if the state automatically balanced its budget by borrowing already committed funds to offset spending which far exceeds that which was budgeted. Assurances that such loans would be paid back are only as meaningful as the future availability of funds in far greater amounts than have been available in the past.

A reputation acquired through publicity is not to be confused with character, acquired through living.

America Has Faced Uncertain Future Each Thanksgiving Day

More than three centuries have passed since Pilgrims first gathered at Plymouth, Mass., to give thanks to God for preserving their new community and granting a bountiful harvest. Tomorrow Quad-City's youth will give thanks for the same circumstances not entirely unlike those of 1621.

As pointed out in the presidential proclamation, Americans still live in a "world of peril and change." They recognize that "we are beneficiaries of the toil and devotion of our fathers, that we can pass their legacy on to our children only by equal toil and equal devotion."

Thanksgiving is timeless, for there has always been and will always be a need to look to God for aid and guidance. Mankind always has been "facing the dark unknown," sustained only by faith. In such uncertainty, hope and love truly are "indestructible gifts."

Again in 1967, Thanksgiving Day helps unite Americans with their past, with each other and with the future. In renewing the spirit of the first Thanksgiving, all can dedicate themselves to serve God by "expressing our acceptance of the limitations of human striving and by affirming our duty to strive nonetheless, as Providence may direct us, toward a better world."

South Venice 17th Annual Yule Show Will Stress Perfection

MRS. DELORES BOSWORTH
902 Third Street
TR. 7-6488

This year's Christmas Wrapping and Decorations Show at Granite City high school will stress perfection, according to Mrs. Delores Bosworth, chairman of the committee.

Demonstration packages will emphasize simplicity and perfection in design that could be carried out on a commercial basis in stores.

Centrepieces will be larger than ever, more elaborate and in better taste, Alastair said.

"The students are going all out this year on centrepieces (for and five feet tall," he said. "One of the most fabulous pieces I have ever seen is a Mexican burro smelting a poinsettia."

Many of the centrepieces this year are featuring flocking, a quick-dry spray-on material. The handicraft pieces are of styrofoam.

Mitchell Kiwanis Club Hears Scout Official

Louis Laster, district commissioner of Boy Scouts of America, was the guest speaker Monday at the dinner meeting of the Mitchell-Kiwanis Club at Smith's cafe. He spoke about Explorer Scouts and the responsibilities of a sponsoring organization.

The Explorer Scout program is open to boys 14-18 years of age.

A report was made on the district's fall follow-up survey, held last week in Belleville and hosted by the Belleville Kiwanis club.

Nine Kiwanians attended the meeting Monday, including one visiting Kiwanian, Herman Alloway of the East St. Louis club.

Dinner was served to Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Bain and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Delores Shultz, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bain and Mrs. Beulah Benner, all of Madison, Miss Jean Shelton, Miss Jane Shelton and Cindy, Connie and Kent Bosworth.

Mrs. Julia Kackley of Third street, Venice, returned home Tuesday evening after visiting Mrs. Wm. W. Hunter of finance Casaville, and other friends in Belleville.

Hunting Rifles Are Deadly Weapons—For Hunters

"What is done to prevent a gun accident must be done before the accident happens," Dr. A. Frank Bridges of the Southern Illinois University Safety Center has cautioned hunters in listing 11 points for them to remember when handling firearms. He urges:

Treat every gun with the respect due a loaded gun; transport only empty guns, taken down and preferably in a case; be positive that the barrel and action are clear of obstruction; always carry the gun so that you can control the direction of the muzzle even if you fall; make sure of your target before pulling the trigger.

Never point a gun at anything you do not intend to shoot; never leave a gun unattended unless it is unloaded; never climb a tree or fence with a loaded gun; do not shoot at a flat, hard surface or the surface of water; do not "mix gunpowder and alcohol"; and keep your finger out of the trigger guard until your sights are on the target.

His warning is timely in view of the large number of hunting accidents. It stresses the importance of respect for and understanding of one's firearm and hunting companion, and notes a major cause of firearm hunting accidents: the victim moved into the line of fire; the victim was shot by an excited hunter; the victim was not seen; or the victim was mistaken for game.

Most weapons, it is said, can be deadly. "I didn't mean to do it," hardly reduces a tragedy; the time for safety training is in advance.

Time To Begin Revising Traffic Controls At School Crossings

Compliance with new state school crossing requirements by Madison and Venice leaves only Granite City among the local cities still using outdated portable traffic lights and reversible stop signs.

Permanent light signals are required, and definite plans will need to be made soon, lest another year start without compliance. The question of whether motorists can be forced to obey illegal traffic signals leaves both drivers and pupils in a hazardous "no man's land" of law enforcement which should be ended as soon as possible.

'Tree Of Lights' Brings Holiday Cheer To Those In Greatest Need

Looked upon more and more as the chief means for bringing Christmas cheer to those who are most deserving, the Salvation Army "Tree of Lights" campaign this year is fortunate to have as its chairman Carl Graham. Full support by the public is urged during the drive period beginning Dec. 1.

Along with its direct aid, the Salvation Army serves as a clearing house for all Christmas contributions of food, clothing and toys to needy families, hospital patients and nursing home residents. With duplications avoided, each Quad-City has the assurance that his holiday season gift will be put to the best use.

Wholesome Interest By Parents In School Services, Facilities

American Education Week crowds estimated at upwards of 5000 persons reflect a wholesome interest in school services and facilities throughout the Quad-Cities. The typical parent, it is said, has an intense desire for his child to obtain the best possible education, which is important for the individual and for society itself.

Attention by citizens on school needs and programs can be a great help to educators and students. We hope to see it continue and applied to all facets of school operations.

If the sun moved closer to the earth we could save a lot of gas and fuel oil.

Find Natural Causes In Carl Lomax Death

The death last week of Granite City contractor Carl M. Lomax was due to natural causes and not drowning, it was determined at an inquest Monday.

St. Charles, Mo., county coroner Frank Amolsing said an autopsy showed Lomax had died of a coronary arterial disease. It had been reported earlier his death was from drowning.

Mr. Lomax, 62, fell from a boat into the Mississippi river last Wednesday afternoon. Edward Holkamp of Clayton, Mo., and Joseph Kennerly of 2528 State street were riding on the boat.

Holkamp and Kennerly testified at the inquest, which was held at the state treasury department. They said Mr. Lomax did not cry out as he fell into the water and struggled.

GIVE THANKS FOR THIS NATION'S FREEDOMS

When we sit down to the traditional feast with our families on Thanksgiving Day, Americans throughout our great country should truly give thanks for the freedoms we enjoy — freedom of thought and free speech and religion; freedom to enjoy the fruits of our labors and to raise our children according to the dictates of our hearts and minds.

But to secure these freedoms and to guard them through the generations of our nation from our "Battle for Independence" to the "Cold War" in which we are engaged today, Americans in every age have been called upon to make sacrifices.

These sacrifices have been made willingly in the faith that freedom must be secure for our nation.

Americans of every race and color, of every religious faith, have endured privation and danger, and all too frequently have given us their lives—that we might remain free.

Must Maintain Liberty

This precious gift cannot be taken lightly. By our acceptance, we must pledge always to keep the torch of liberty burning and to preserve the freedom that civilization has taken thousands of years to flower.

On Thanksgiving Day, let us remember in our prayers the many Americans who will spend their lives in a remote corner of the world—behind the wall of Berlin or guarding the base at Guantanamo—maintaining the outposts of liberty.

The American soldier who stands guard against Communist aggression in Berlin is the same kind of man who stood ready to fight at Bunker Hill. Our marines at Guantanamo are the same kind of marines who stormed two Jima.

Strength Of Purpose

The American of today is the same American who sat with the patriot to pray on that first Thanksgiving Day. He is strong of purpose and prayer as he was then.

Let us have much to be grateful for on this Thanksgiving Day. Our country is at peace, and we might remain free.

Let us remember the men who gave, and preserve our freedom from a remote corner of our homes. Let us give thanks because they serve as others have served before them.

Plans Developing For New County Historical Museum

The possibility of a full-scale historical museum for the citizens of Madison county seemed to reach today with an announcement of plans to establish a new museum, which would serve as a repository for the county's valuable historical exhibits and research facilities.

The museum, headed by Irving Dillard of Collinsville, is planning a fund drive to purchase a 14-room brick house, 715 N. Main street in Edwardsville to house the museum. The house, known as "the Weid house," previously offered for sale, has been taken off the market by a small group of interested citizens and held for use as a museum.

Announcement of the proposal was made jointly today by Dillard and A. Edson Smith of First National Bank of Madison County. The new museum would replace the old quarters presently occupied in the county courthouse.

The proposed museum home, built in 1836, is an example of early Illinois architecture and construction. The original 11-room, Springfield, Duncan frame addition at the rear, were constructed of bricks reportedly from a local quarry by covered wagon.

Brought Forth

The house was built for Dr. John H. Weir, early county resident who came to the vicinity in 1836 and graduated from the Harvard Medical College. Dr. Weir brought with him to the site a bride and a number of pieces of original Duncan Pyrite furniture.

"With all the interest which has been generated among the people of Madison county in its past—and its future—through the efforts of our Sequences, this year, we feel there is no more fitting time than now to turn our efforts toward establishing a historical museum."

The new museum would replace the old quarters presently occupied in the county courthouse.

Local members named to the committee are: C. E. Townsend, President of the Madison County Historical Society; Henry D. Karandjeff, Grand Juror; Burton C. Bernier, Granite City attorney and a member of the board of directors of the Madison County Historical Society; and Lewis Jr., of Madison, also a member of the society's board of directors.

Here Are Types of Evergreens Most Popular for Christmas

Perhaps you are one of the wise folks who already have decided just what kind of tree you are going to have this Christmas. You may even be going out to the woods, to cut your own.

Or, you may plan to buy one at the nursery to transplant outdoors after the holidays.

No matter whether you have your particular tree in mind, or not, here's a run-down to some of the more popular and attractive Christmas greens:

Douglas fir: A fragrant and long-lasting tree, this evergreen is a favorite on the West Coast and in the Plains states. The dark yellow-green or blue-green needles, striped on the underside, are flat and pliable, about an inch long, and are attached all around the branch.

Balsam fir: This is one of the most popular choices for trees because of its symmetrical shape, fragrance, and long-lasting qualities. You can identify it by its needles, which are about one-half to one inch long; deep, shiny green on the upper surface, gray-green with two broad white stripes on the underside; flat with rounded tips. They grow singly (and thickly) on opposite sides of the branch, forming a flat spray. The White fir is similar, but has longer needles that are pale green to whitish and curve upward and outward.

White pine: Not as popular as Scotch pine, but many folks prefer this species because of its rich blue-green color. Its long needles (three to five inches) grow in clusters of five (Scotch pine has two), and are slender and flexible.

As with most other pines the long needles give the tree a fuller, bushier appearance than firs or spruces.

Other pines (Virginia, Red or Norway, Pitch, Austrian, etc.) can also be recognized by their long needles growing in clusters.

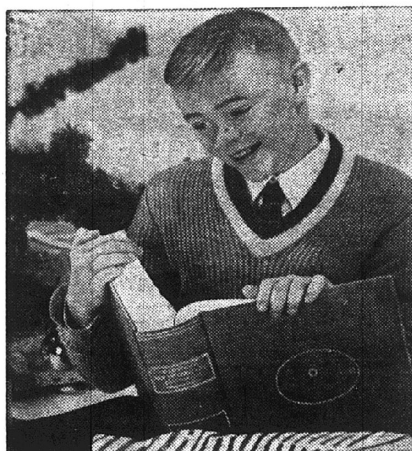

Black spruce: Like other spruces (Norway, White, Blue, etc.) Black spruce is best for an outdoor tree or decorations because it sheds its needles after a few days indoors.

Needles are one-fourth to three-fourths of an inch long, pale blue-green, stiff and sharp-pointed, and are attached all around the branch. (One way to distinguish a spruce is to pull off a needle—it leaves a bump.) Often it has rounded cones about an inch long. Spruces are not as fragrant as firs or pines.

Eastern red cedar: This tree is most popular in the South, it has short (about one-half inch) awl-shaped or scalelike needles, which are yellow- or blue-green. Sometimes it has small, dark berries. The famous cedar aroma is released only when the wood is cut; it's not very fragrant otherwise.

Hemlock: Not a good indoor tree because needles drop quickly, but makes a handsome outdoor wreath. The flat needles are about one-half inch long; dark green on top, paler underneath with two white stripes; and rounded or notched at tip. Needles are attached all around the branch.

A WONDERFUL GIFT FOR THE SCHOLAR or for the whole family is a gift of Webster's Third New International Dictionary, the first new unabridged in 28 years. Alert students of all ages will enjoy adventures with words, illustrations and quotations, as well as the many other fascinating features of this publication.

Give 'Oldsters' Gift Surprises

If there are any senior citizens on your gift list who are semi-invalids or simply "not as spry as they used to be," consider some gift ideas to make their life a bit easier:

Gifts that offer comfort, convenience and companionship are always most welcome.

Your favorite oldster may welcome a canary, parakeet, small aquarium with tropical fish or gentle kitten as a pet.

Plants, dish garden and window box gardens are friendly gifts, too.

And for conversations with family and friends, a colored extension phone with a "traveling" extra-long cord (a wonderful step saver) will be just what he or she has been wanting.

Such little safety items as a bathtub rail to hold on to while getting in or out of the tub... a sturdy step stool to reach up-high closets and cupboards... attractive night lamps for bedroom or other rooms... those foot-long matches to make oven lighting a cinch—these are all thoughtful gift notions.

Here are but a few: a pillow with arms and back to sit up comfortably—in bed while reading; an adjustable tray that raises enough for breakfast in bed, or lowers to armchair height for enjoying a snack while watching TV; a slanted leg rest that will attach to a chair in the living room, or a big, comfy ottoman; all sorts of electric massagers give comfort, as do heating pads and electric blankets.

Glamour Gifts For Working Girls

Give her something of glamour, and she'll be enamored—for these are the things she loves. Most women, especially working girls, look forward to gifts they usually don't buy for themselves; therefore the list can be endless.

To sum up: these can be gifts of fine leather, books, desk accessories, hair ornaments, evening bags, fine candy, costume jewelry, writing accessories, and so on.

Wrap-Up Christmas Shopping Chores Early

Christmas is always so much more fun when you can sit back and enjoy the festivities—rested and relaxed.

So you see, "Shop early" is no mere slogan. It is good sound advice, which pays generous dividends to the gift shopper in many ways.

Early shopping gives you more time to choose wisely and well from wider selections. It gives you more time to pay, if you need it. It gives you more time to relax and enjoy the approach of the holiday season.

In addition to the countless suggestions for gift buying to be found in the articles and pictures in these pages, many stores in the city have taken advertising space in which to tell you exactly what they now have in stock to help you make savings on early special purchases. It gives you more time to choose thrilling gifts for everyone on your list.

Since finances are part of everybody's Christmas shopping picture, the convenient layaway plans that many stores offer are often a great help. With a small deposit here and there to hold gift selections, you're several important steps ahead on your Christmas shopping.

The experts say it's wise to shop a little every day, pay a little every week, and then take out your gifts in time for Christmas. It's easy on your budget and easy on you!

You may need a financial "assistant" on a longer term basis where major purchases are involved. In this event you can arrange for longer term payments or a visit to your bank may well bring a happy solution to your problem.

Most banks can arrange loans for Christmas gifting, on terms to suit the needs and convenience of the borrower.

When you start to accumulate your gift (via early shopping) it's important to set aside a special place in which to store them as they are wrapped and marked for their recipients.

Christmas gift lists are a "must." Write yours out carefully, and well ahead of time, and study it thoughtfully before shopping. Think of the person when you think of the gift. Can he use it? Will he like it? Will it fit?

In shopping, watch for bargains, of course. But, most importantly, stress values in all purchases, keeping ever in mind that the true test of values is what you get for what you pay.

Remember, your Christmas shopping will be well "under control" once it's well under way. So the important thing is to get started—now—and enjoy a truly "Merry Christmas!"

A safe and sane Christmas is no longer a cliché but a reality. An honest-to-goodness fireproof evergreen tree, cut from The Dow Chemical Company's new fiber ROVANA, is flame resistant and remains so throughout the life of the tree.

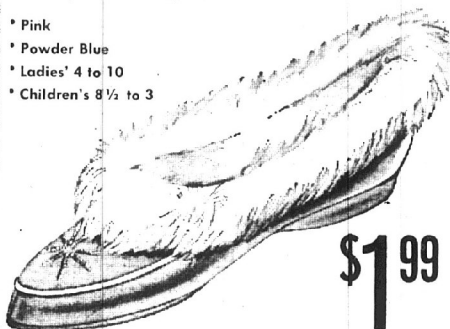

It looks like a real fir tree, but does not require hot house treatment. Easy to clean, colorfast and odorless, it is mildew proof and crush resistant. Pack it away each year and it comes out of storage the following season as fresh as new.

International Christmas Customs

Pagan and Christmas customs are combined in our giving of gifts. Santa Claus is a variation of the name Saint Nicholas. His festival day is Dec. 6.

Living in the Fourth Century, according to legend, he secretly went about giving gifts to the needy. In one favorite tale he left bags of gold for three girls who had no dowries; needless to add all three soon were married.

Other names for the gift-giver are Papa Noel, La Befana, Jule-nissen—plus many more.

Kris Kringle, for instance, comes from the German words "Christ Kind" or infant Christ, but is depicted now as a girl wearing a crown and carrying a Christmas tree. She shares honors with Knecht Rupert, who gives presents to the good children and Peisnichol (Nicholas with fur), who leaves only switches in the shoes of naughty boys and girls.

It probably is from the European custom of setting out the shoe or sabot for gifts that we derive our own ceremony of hanging up a stocking on Christmas Eve.

Some scholars believe caroling is a carry-over from the Roman songs of the Saturnalia. The first songs of the Nativity date from the Fourth Century and German lieder from the 11th. Some 200 years later, carols found their way into France and Britain. One quaint belief of northern England was that on Christmas Eve the bees gathered and hummed carols.

The Puritans strongly opposed singing and even the celebration of Christmas itself. In England they passed laws in 1644 forbidding its observance, but these were repealed after the Restoration.

From 1659 to 1681 in parts of America it was a criminal offense to celebrate the holiday. Later in our history, George Washington credited his success against the Hessians at Trenton in 1776 to the enemy's evening of Christmas revelry that left them open to a surprise attack.

The word "Yule" comes from the Scandinavian feast of Juul. Great fires were built to honor the god Thor and to defy the Frost King. The medieval English considered it bad luck if a squint-eyed person entered the great hall while the traditional log was burning—and even worse luck if a barefooted or flatfooted woman appeared.

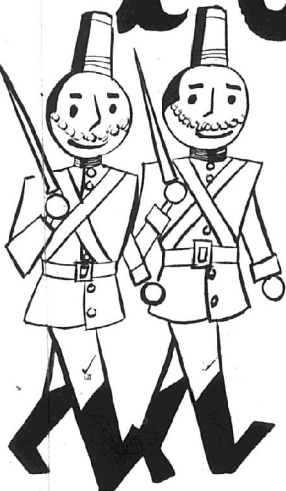

Christmas comes twice a year to lucky children in Germany, Switzerland, Belgium, and Holland. On St. Nicholas' Day, Dec. 6, good children received candy, nuts, oranges and some toys. The bad ones, supposedly, are put into St. Nick's sack and spirited away. If the family can afford it, toys and candy are distributed again on Dec. 25, perhaps tucked in a shoe placed under a window or near the fireplace. However, this custom is fairly recent; it dates back to World War II and was introduced by American GIs.

As more and more Americans continue to travel the wide, wide world, they are making friends everywhere.

For extending cheer to your international friends, here is a rundown of some "Merry Christmas" translations:

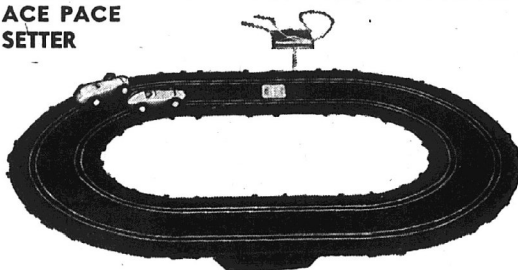

French—"Joyeux Noel."
German—"Froeliche Weihnachten."
Italian—"Buon Natale."
Spanish—"Feliz Navidad."
Norwegian, Swedish, Danish—"God Jul."
Japanese—"Kurimasu omedeto go aimasu."
Swahili—"Siku kuu ya kulzu liwa Masiya."

Be Sure Tree Lites Are Safe

It's important to check last year's Christmas tree lights and strings well in advance of tree-trimming time.

Be sure to inspect them carefully. Plug each string in separately. If lights flicker after you've tightened all the bulbs it may mean that sockets are loose or there may be a short in the wiring. Examine the strings carefully (while disconnected) for broken, frayed spots. Replace any defective strings and bulbs you may find.

To estimate the power load you need, multiply the number of bulbs by the wattage for each. The smallest bulb, used in strings connected in series (when one bulb goes, they all go out) is rated at five watts.

The next larger, and now the most popular, used in indoor-parallel strings is a 10-watt bulb. Floodlights and spotlights are generally 150 watts each.

FOR OUTDOORS

Use only the light strings designed for exterior use for outdoor lighting. Extensions should be of heavy-duty wire with weatherproof covering. Outdoor connections between cords should be wrapped with rubber or plastic tape to seal out moisture.

Use an outdoor, weather-proof outlet for your power supply, if possible. Next best is use of an outdoor light, such as a porch outlet, after removing the bulb.

INSULATION

If a line is being run to a tree or display some distance from the Want An Old Fashioned Yule?

If you've a yen to make this a really "old-fashioned" Christmas, the best way to begin is to go out and get your tree the way our forefathers did! Go into the "forest," cut it down, and then haul it home.

Yes, today there are hundreds of American tree farms and nurseries, where this old family custom is being revived with a new twist.

The difference is that these modern Christmas trees, instead of growing wild, are carefully cultivated by professional growers. Farmers and nurserymen find that they can lower their costs—and build customer interest—by allowing a family to choose a Christmas tree while it is still growing.

Customers usually come out to select their tree in November or early December, have it tagged, then pick it up a week or so before Christmas.

There are some places where you can have the fun of cutting down your own tree with a saw or ax provided by the grower. In others, the tree is dug up for you and then put in a bucket or wrapped in burlap.

Trees selected in this way stay fresh and green longer than those that are cut down far in advance of their sale. Too, prices are usually a little lower than they would be at the usual street-corner sales lot. Costs, however, vary widely, depending largely on locale but also on the tree's size, shape, thickness, etc.

Trees that are balled and burlapped (dug out with their roots intact, suitable for transplanting) are more expensive.

To find farms and nurseries that offer this choose-your-own service, contact your county agricultural agent. Or just drive along a country road outside your town and look for the signs.

house, run the line up the side of the house at least seven feet and secure it with an insulator. Run it from that point to the tree and tie it to a sturdy limb.

If a small shrub near the foundation is to be lighted, run the extension to the top of a stake driven in the ground.

If floodlighting the house or a display, use weatherproof bulbs along with special outdoor receptacles.

Indoors or out, don't overload circuits. An average branch circuit, fused to 15 amperes, can handle a load of about 1800 watts. Circuits of heavier wire and protected with 20-amp fuses can handle up to 2,400 watts if divided through several outlets.

Replace defective strings. Use strings of lights that are connected in parallel, especially for outdoor decorations. Parallel connections permit the remaining bulbs to continue burning even though one or more has burned out.

CHRISTMAS CARD CUE—something as simple as a holiday wreath can provide an eye-catching circle for a dramatic personalized photo greeting card. And, you needn't be a "pro" or have expensive equipment to get a warm and truly individualized photo for your greeting. Today's aim-and-shoot Brownie cameras that take color, or black and white pictures do the job well for Christmas photo-takers.

Recording Albums Lend Wide Variety

The Christmas holiday brings with it a wealth of stately religious hymns and heart-warming carols! Even pop tunes add notes of listening pleasure. And, gift recordings can extend that pleasure through the whole year.

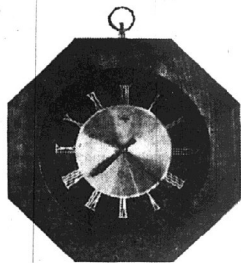

Music lovers this Christmas have a special treat awaiting them in stereophonic sound, the new tonal magic now available for home high fidelity music systems.

SPORTSWEAR MAKES GIFT-GIVING EASY

Sportswear lines-up from casual sportcoats, to jackets for golfing, boating, hunting, skiing and any other activity. Accompaniments in slacks, shirts, sweaters, etc., are equally varied. Price ranges too, adapt flexibility to Christmas budgets.

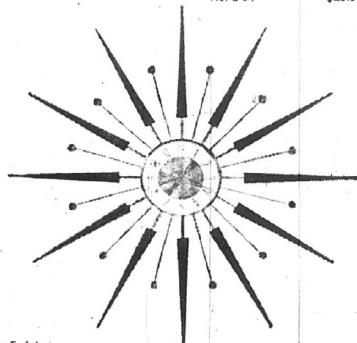

Size is not too much of a problem in sportswear since sizes are most often marked small, medium, large and extra large. But, don't hesitate to snoop or question those in the know to get the proper size.

"DOG-GONE GOOD" GIFT IDEAS in toys for perky poodles or bright beagles . . . Bob Bartos, manager of the Friskies' Research Kennels suggests that you choose Fido's gift with care considering the dog's habits and breed as well as safety.

Let Kiddies Make Their Own Gifts

The pre-Christmas season can be a busy and constructive time for children. As they make up their gift lists, remind them that grownups and young chums will delight in receiving presents of their own making. And it's a good way to have their fun at the same time.

Such simple items such as oil cloth and rubber cement or glue can be used to make many very pretty gifts. Let the youngsters decide which gifts they want to make. Help in estimating the amount of oil cloth and the few other things needed.

The seasonal card is a relatively late development. It seems to have evolved from the penmanship cards issued at school during the Christmas season. Used to test the student's proficiency with his pen, some were so well done they took the place of other gifts.

By 1864 the custom of sending these cards was well established in England. It became so popular in this country in the 1870's that L. Prang and Company of Boston broke the British monopoly and began manufacturing cards in America.

Greens for decorations came to us from the Romans, who used them during the winter solstice or Saturnalia. At this time of year, late December, the Druids of ancient Britain gathered mistletoe for their sacred rites. The plant was believed to be so powerful that enemies meeting under it would lay aside their weapons and embrace. Hence our custom of kissing under the mistletoe.

Holiday Place Mats

Make the mats by cutting out rectangles, circles or flower shapes from red or green oil cloth. From a contrasting colored or patterned oil cloth, cut circles to resemble Christmas tree ornaments. (Circles are easily fashioned. Place a glass on the oil cloth, run a pencil around the bottom of the glass for a guide line, and cut.) Paste the ornaments in pretty arrangements on the place mats.

Stuffed Animals

See that the children look through some coloring and reading books for pictures of animals and select the ones they want to use. Make an outline of the animals with tracing paper and pencil. Cut out and use as the patterns. Place a pattern on oil cloth and cut two identical shapes. Sew edges together with yarn, using an overcasting stitch. Leave enough room open at top to fill animal with cotton. After cotton is inserted, sew rest of edges together.

Making Cards

Christmas cards will be truly personal when they are the results of the children's handicraft. Use card board (save some from Dad's shirts when they come back from the laundry), construction paper or something similar for the cards. Cut out Christmas trees, wreaths, a Santa Claus, reindeer, poinsettia, tree ornaments, stockings and so on from various colors and patterns of oil cloth. Mix and match shapes and designs and paste on the cards. Have the youngsters add their greetings in crayon or paint.

For an old fashioned Christmas—traditional in the many niceties that make for a very happy holiday—bring fresh greenery into the home and plan to use for effective about the house decor.

The ingredients for decorating the interior are boughs of evergreen, red and white candles, ornaments, holly, and a good portion of imagination.

SO MANY WAYS TO PLEASE A YOUNGSTER! "Exciting games, a wide variety of dolls and stuffed toys, mechanical toys, construction and scientific kits not only provide fun for the child but can be teaching and educational aids as well," says Lionel Weintraub, president of Ideal Toy Corporation, who has devoted his adult life to the interests of children.

It's Always Gracious Giving Furniture Items

One of the nicest holiday traditions is that of giving a present "to the house," a gift the whole family can enjoy. To delight everyone, a "house gift" must be shared and enjoyed by Mom and Dad as well as the children. It should be easy to care for and durable, besides adding an attractive note to home surroundings.

Leather furniture is just such as gift, suggests Leather Industries of America. A leather upholstered chair in the living room or den will become a "favorite" seat for Dad, Mom and the kids. Available in hundreds of soft and brilliant colors, a leather chair offers a decor dividend for modern or period styles. Best of all, leather chairs resist sag, soil and scratching—all common dangers when the family includes teen-age contortionists.

In the dining room, leather-covered chairs combine with sleek, satiny woods, make a family meal an occasion. Rich-hued top grain leathers provide atmosphere without care. A damp cloth wipes away all food stains and restores modern leathers to their original brightness.

New lamps for the living room now show-off rich tooled leathers for the base, while occasional tables have handsome leather tops. Sturdy leather headboards in vivid colored leathers are available for children's beds, and softly-feminine off-white and beige tufted leather headboards for the master bedroom.

Leather offers the dual charm of luxury with little-care upkeep. Leather is a gift for the family that keeps on giving pleasure long after St. Nick has departed.

A $4 ukulele and a $4000 grand piano have something in common. Both can lead to a lifetime of enjoyment for anyone on your Christmas list.

Here are some tips from the American Music Conference on how to strike the proper note.
